

House Resolution No. 219

Whereas, Janet Houx of Holden, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a teacher at Holden Middle School in the Holden R-III School District; and

Whereas, Janet Houx will enhance her already impressive record of achievements on Wednesday, January 28, 2004, when she is publicly recognized in the Capitol Rotunda by the Missouri NBPTS Network for her National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards; and

Whereas, National Board Certification is a lengthy, rigorous assessment which can take up to three years to complete and which results in a less than forty percent success rate for first-time applicants; and

Whereas, to attain National Board Certification, Janet Houx presented evidence of her teaching effectiveness, including classroom video segments and analysis of teacher decisions and student work; examples of teaching practices which result in an accompanying increase in student learning; models of meaningful interaction with parents to impact student learning; documents supporting such appropriate teaching strategies as large and small group learning, use of effective questioning techniques, choice of materials that engage students, checking for understanding throughout the lesson and making adjustments, and properly evaluating student work for understanding to determine what and how to reteach; and timed assessments to prove superior levels of content knowledge; and

Whereas, Janet Houx, who was named Teacher of the Year 2002 by the Holden Teachers Association, earned a Bachelor's degree in education and a Master's degree in communications at Central Missouri State University; and

Whereas, a 4-H Leader and member of New Hope Baptist Church, Janet Houx is the wife of Guy Houx; the mother of Gylin Lynch, James Houx, and Matthew Houx; and the daughter of Betty Currie and the late Oren Currie:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the educational accomplishments garnered by teacher Janet Houx down through the years and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon her completion of National Board Certification through the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards and our wishes for continued success as a respected employee of the Holden R-III School District; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Janet Houx, as a measure of our esteem for her.
